DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-14 and 32-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by WO 94/04313.

WO 94/04313 teaches an apparatus as claimed. The apparatus comprises a cleaning medium as claimed and devices as claimed. The apparatus is fully capable to perform all functions recited by the claims. See entire document, especially Figures 1, 3, 5 and description of cleaning mediums at pages 10-14.

3. Claims 1-14 and 32-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by WO 82/0101844.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 11/13/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Art Unit: 1746

The applicants amended the claims and allege that the rejection over WO 94/04313 is not proper. The applicants rely on the newly introduced limitation requiring cleaning of interior portions of the body to be cleaned.

This is not persuasive because the body to be cleaned is not defined by the claims. In the broadest interpretation of the claims the referenced body is readable on the part containing the cleaning medium. Moreover, at least at page 4, line 25 – page 5, line 9 the applied document teaches a tubular work-piece.

The applicants further allege that the applied document does not teach the newly introduced limitation of moving the cleaning medium with respect to the body by the magnetic force.

This is not persuasive because of the following: First, the claims are directed to an apparatus not to a method. The apparatus of the applied document comprises the claimed parts and thereby is capable of performing the claimed function or intended use. Moreover, The some of the claims (claim 1 and dependent) recite only a magnetic field generating device including means for generating a magnetic field positioned to apply a magnetic force and to move cleaning medium with respect to the body. The applied document teaches such. Second, the applied document teaches moving the medium by the magnetic field and teach moving the medium with respect to the body of the work-piece and rubbing the body. See at least page 7, line 2 – page 8, line 1, especially page 7, line 21 – page 8, line1.

The rejection is maintained.

It is noted that the applicants interpret the claims as requiring means for creating rubbing motion of the particles of the cleaning medium by application of magnetic field to the particles of the medium. While the examiner do not agree that the instant claims are limited to such concept and takes the position that WO 94/04313 teaches such, the rejection over WO 82/0101844 is added to meet the newly introduced limitations and the applicants' interpretation of the claims presented in the Remarks.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

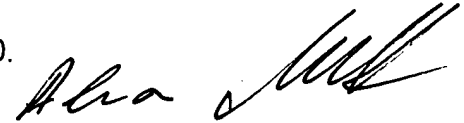

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
